TAP Good Academic Standing Waiver Request

TAP regulations permit students the opportunity to receive a one-time waiver of the good academic standing requirement of the TAP award due to extenuating circumstances. The waiver is not automatically granted.

Complete this form to request a one-time (one semester) waiver of the good academic standing requirement of the TAP award.

A member of the Certifications team will reach out to you to discuss your application and you will be notified via email of the decision.

Submit completed forms to docs@byts.edu

WAIVER REQUEST

Please explain below the reason(s) you do not meet the requirements of TAP's good academic standing, and how you intend to reestablish good academic standing in accordance with TAP regulations within the probationary period of one semester. Please include any supporting information that may be relevant to your circumstances.

By signing below, I certify that I am requesting to be considered for a one-time TAP good academic standing waiver. I understand that if approved I must meet good academic standing requirements within the probationary semester requested above or my TAP award eligibility will be suspended.
